Tener + que and Deber

You and your family are visiting the city of Cusco, Perú, where they are preparing for the Festival of the Sun (Inti Raymi). As you settle into your new surroundings, one of the locals, Paco, is telling you about what everyone is doing prior to the festivities. Use forms of "tener + que" to describe what needs to be done to get ready for this tremendous celebration.

1. Yo  que 2.  (to water) las flores.
3. Las mujeres  que 4.  (to sweep) las calles.
5. El dueño (owner) de los restaurantes  que 6.  (to cook) comidas deliciosas.
7. Todos nosotros  que 8.  (to iron) los disfraces (costumes).

Paco also has recommendations of what you and your family should do during the festival. Use forms of "deber" + verb to complete his suggestions.

10. Tú  (to make) un disfraz (costume) original.
11. Tu mamá  (to walk the dog) durante el desfile (parade).
12. Tus abuelos  (to watch) la procesión.
13. Nosotros  (to listen to) música en el parque.
14. Tus hermanos  (to go) a la Plaza de Armas.
15. Yo  (to play) diferentes juegos.
16. ¡Tú  (to go out) con nosotros!
